No. : P- 30 /05/2023

Jakarta, 20 May 2023

To: Indonesian Pencak Silat Association (IPSI)

In Place

Subject: Disciplinary Action Against Indonesian Coach-Tanding Following the Incident at the 32nd SEA Games Cambodia, 5-17 May, 2023.

1. This letter refers to the incident involving Indonesian Coach-Tanding, Mr. Royke Maengkom;
2. The incident involved excessive protest, including grabbing and throwing the coach's box onto the arena, loud shouting, and yelling.
3. After a thorough evaluation of the evidence and in alignment with PERSILAT's Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Regulations, PERSILAT has decided to impose the following sanction:

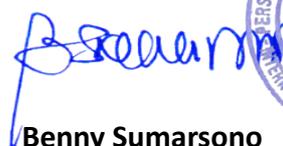

Mr. Royke Maengkom, Coach-Tanding, is suspended from participating in any international championship endorsed by PERSILAT for a period of three (3) years, effective from 20 May 2023 to 19 May 2026.

This decision underscores PERSILAT's unwavering commitment to upholding sportsmanship, integrity, and mutual respect within the global Pencak Silat community. We urge IPSI to ensure that this disciplinary outcome is clearly communicated to all relevant parties and to reinforce ethical conduct in all future delegations.

We trust this matter will serve as a constructive reminder of the values that underpin our sport.

Thank you for your cooperation.
