

IPSF_PERSILAT SAFEGUARDING CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct applies to all Pencak Silat National Federations members of International Pencak Silat Federation (IPSF_PERSILAT) delegations, including athletes, coaches, technical officials, medical staff, support staff, and all accredited persons. By signing, participants agree to uphold the highest standards of conduct and safeguard the rights, dignity, and well-being of every individual, especially children, young people, and vulnerable persons.

All accredited participants must read, understand, and sign this Code of Conduct before the start of the Games. Participants are also reminded to respect local laws and cultural norms in the Host Country, both inside and outside the Competition venues.

1. General Principles

All participants are required to:

- Respect and comply with the laws of the Host Country as well as the rules, codes, and regulations of the International Pencak Silat Federation (IPSF_PERSILAT) and the Organizing Committee.
- Place the safety, dignity, and well-being of athletes and other participants above all other considerations.
- Conduct themselves with integrity, fairness, and respect for others, regardless of age, gender, ability, culture, religion, or background.
- Recognize and respect positions of authority and trust, while always acting in the best interests of children and young people.

2. Safeguarding Standards of Behavior

All participants must:

- Maintain appropriate physical, emotional, and professional boundaries at all times.
- Communicate in a respectful, inclusive manner, free from harassment, bullying, intimidation, or abuse.
- Stand against, intervene (where safe), and report any form of harassment, abuse, exploitation, neglect, or inappropriate conduct.
- Respect privacy and confidentiality, particularly when handling sensitive safeguarding information or athlete data.
- Promote a safe and supportive environment, on and off the field of play, including in accommodation, transportation, and digital/online spaces.
