Activity Report of the Azerbaijan Pencak Silat Federation (2023–2026)

During the period of 2023–2026, the Azerbaijan Pencak Silat Federation has consistently carried out its activities with the objective of promoting the development of Pencak Silat in Azerbaijan, strengthening international cooperation, and enhancing the competitive performance and professional standards of its athletes.

Throughout this period, the Federation has undertaken the following key activities:

- * Organizing National Championships, National Cups, and Open Tournaments;
- * Conducting selection competitions for children, cadets, juniors, youth, and senior athletes;
- * Ensuring the participation of the Azerbaijan National Team in European and World Championships, as well as other international Pencak Silat competitions;
- * Organizing seminars, educational courses, and certification programs for referees and coaches;
- * Supporting the establishment of new sports clubs and promoting the development of Pencak Silat across various regions of Azerbaijan;
- * Conducting demonstrations and awareness programs aimed at promoting martial arts, sports culture, and a healthy lifestyle among young people;

- * Expanding cooperation with international Pencak Silat organizations and strengthening Azerbaijan's representation within the global Pencak Silat community;
- * Reinforcing the Federation's international partnerships and enhancing Azerbaijan's standing and recognition within the international Pencak Silat movement.

Since 2022, the Federation has been led by Maqami Bayramov. Under his leadership, significant efforts have been made to expand international cooperation, improve the preparation and performance of athletes, and increase Azerbaijan's participation and representation in major international competitions.

During the reporting period, the Federation has remained committed to its long-term strategic objectives of further promoting Pencak Silat throughout Azerbaijan, achieving stronger international sporting results, and establishing Pencak Silat as one of the country's recognized and actively developing sports.
