21ST WORLD PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP 2026

6TH JUNIOR WORLD PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP 2026

Dear Distinguished Delegates, Athletes, Coaches, Referees, Officials and Members of the Global Pencak Silat Family,

It is with immense pride and great pleasure that I welcome you to Tashkent, Uzbekistan, for the 21st World Pencak Silat Championship (Senior, Master 1 & Master 2) and the 6th Junior World Pencak Silat Championship, taking place from 5 to 12 December 2026.

These championships represent more than a sporting event. They symbolize unity among nations, the preservation of our martial arts heritage, and the shared vision of strengthening Pencak Silat across the world. For the first time, Uzbekistan has the honor of hosting the world's most prestigious Pencak Silat gathering, bringing together the finest athletes and officials from every continent.

This historic championship will proudly feature Junior, Senior, Master 1, and Master 2 categories, bringing together athletes of different generations on one prestigious world stage. By creating opportunities for both rising talents and experienced champions, we celebrate the continuity, legacy, and lifelong spirit of Pencak Silat.

Our Organizing Committee is fully committed to ensuring the highest standards of competition, safety, fairness, and hospitality. Together with our national and international partners, we are working tirelessly to deliver a world-class championship and unforgettable experience for every participant and guest.

I extend my deepest appreciation to PERSILAT, the Asian Pencak Silat Federation, national federations, government institutions, partners, sponsors, volunteers, and all those whose dedication and support have made this historic event possible.

To all athletes, coaches, officials, and supporters from around the world, welcome to Tashkent. Welcome to Uzbekistan.

Together, let us make history and celebrate the spirit of Pencak Silat!

Chairman of the Organizing Committee

Mr. MUKHAMMAD MUBIN RUZIBOYEV

ABOUT TASHKENT, UZBEKISTAN

Tashkent, the capital of the Republic of Uzbekistan, is a vibrant and rapidly developing city that serves as the country's political, economic, cultural, and educational center. Home to more than 3 million residents, Tashkent is a modern metropolis where rich history and contemporary innovation exist in harmony. Strategically located at the heart of Central Asia, the city has become an important regional hub for international business, investment, tourism, and global cooperation.

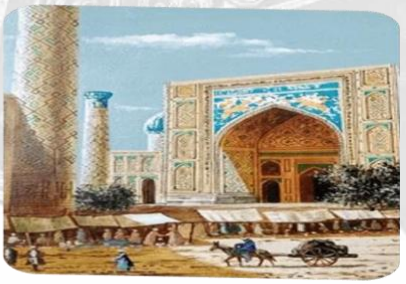
Renowned for its warm hospitality, world-class infrastructure, and cultural heritage, Tashkent offers visitors a unique blend of ancient traditions and modern urban development. The city features state-of-the-art sports facilities, international conference venues, prestigious universities, green parks, and iconic architectural landmarks. As Uzbekistan continues its dynamic reforms and economic growth, Tashkent is strengthening its position as a leading destination for international events, business forums, cultural exchanges, and major sporting championships, welcoming participants and guests from around the world.

CULTURE

Tashkent's culture is a vibrant combination of ancient traditions and a modern lifestyle. The city has absorbed a multinational heritage, where oriental customs harmoniously coexist with elements of the Soviet era and global cultural influences. Music, theater, literature and crafts are appreciated here. National holidays, festivals, exhibitions and concerts are held. Special attention is paid to family traditions, respect for elders, hospitality and preservation of historical memory.

ART

There are art galleries, exhibition halls, art academies and art residences in the city. Examples of murals, sculptures, and graffiti created by both local and foreign artists can be found on the streets. The city also supports the development of young art — contests, performances, creative meetings and master classes are held. In this way, art becomes an accessible and living element of the urban environment, facilitating dialogue between generations and cultures.



TOURISM

The name Tashkent is believed to originate from the Turkic words meaning "Stone City," reflecting its long history as one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in Central Asia. Today, Tashkent has evolved into a modern, vibrant, and cosmopolitan capital that seamlessly blends its rich cultural heritage with contemporary architecture and urban development.

The city offers visitors a unique combination of historical landmarks, magnificent Islamic architecture, beautiful parks, wide boulevards, modern shopping centers, luxury hotels, and outstanding hospitality. From the ancient Khast-Imam Complex and bustling Chorsu Bazaar to world-class museums, theaters, and contemporary entertainment venues, Tashkent provides unforgettable experiences for every visitor. As the gateway to Uzbekistan, the city is renowned for its safe environment, efficient transportation, diverse cuisine, and welcoming atmosphere, making it an ideal destination for international tourists, business travelers, and major sporting and cultural events.

ABOUT 21ST WORLD PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP AND 6TH JUNIOR WORLD PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP

Pencak Silat is a martial art believed stemming the majority from the Nusantara Archipelago. It translates to "fighting by many techniques of self-defense". It has four main components; mental spirit, art and culture, self-defense, and sport.

The whole aspect is considered, and all elements are paramount during competition. It can be practiced purely for fitness, for aesthetics or with martial arts focus. The large variety that are deployed in Pencak Silat encapsulate it uniqueness.

In the sports context, Pencak Silat is categorized into two categories; Match and Artistic. In recent years, Pencak Silat has transcended into many countries outside Southeast Asia. Pencak Silat is now active in five continents. The sport has since become a part of many people's lives and a platform to bring people closer.

Uzbekistan Pencak Silat Federation has emerged to be one of the evolving countries in promoting Pencak Silat within short years. The 8th Asian Pencak Silat Championship 2024 and the 1st Central Asian Open Pencak Silat Championship 2024 was successfully organized, under the guidance of Central Asian Pencak Silat Federation (CAPSF). The leadership of the President of UPSF Mr. Azizov Abdukahhar, supported by UPSF Board Members and The Republic of Indonesia Embassy based in Tashkent, they have received the approval and endorsement by CAPSF, UPSF Government and Uzbekistan Ministry of Sports to host the upcoming 21st WORLD PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP AND 6TH JUNIOR PENCAK SILAT CHAMPIONSHIP in December at Tashkent. This is the first major competition held in Central Asia.
